 PLEASE NOTE: The information in this directory, including links to websites, is updated annually, but is subject to change. It is the student's responsibility to check with each sponsoring organization regarding eligibility and deadlines. Deadlines are not given in this directory. The amounts of scholarships are not given as these amounts may be subject to change based on the availability of funds and the number of applicants. Not all 2018-2019 application forms were available on the various websites at the time of publication. ***

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This directory provides information regarding college funding opportunities for students in the Midland County area. Developed over many years in cooperation with local high schools, colleges, foundations, and volunteers, the AAUW Midland (MI) Branch, Inc. updates this listing annually. This is the 64th edition of HELPS.

We thank the many organizations, foundations, corporations, and concerned individuals who support the education of our community's young adults with scholarships, grants, and loans, and who cooperated by supplying information for this booklet. High school counselors are available for students who need further assistance and guidance.

SECTION I

HOW TO GET FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Congratulations on deciding to further your education! It may be costly, but it is a worthwhile investment in your future. There is help available in the form of scholarships, grants, and loans. Section I of this booklet provides a brief overview of the college application process and the types of help available. Section II lists some specific financial aid and scholarship opportunities.

COLLEGE ENTRANCE

Applications

Application deadlines vary, but you should plan to submit applications as early as possible. Please check with the colleges/universities to which you plan to apply.

- Realize there will be an application fee for most schools. In most cases this fee is nonrefundable.
- Understand that most colleges and universities will not consider you for campus-based financial aid until you have been admitted to the institution.
- Indicate your interest in financial aid or scholarships by checking the appropriate box on the application (if one is provided).

Some Additional Tips for Preparing Applications

Make a good first impression! Your application may be your only opportunity. Take time to do it well.

- Note all deadlines and plan to finish applications several weeks prior to deadlines to allow counselors time to provide transcripts and for those you have asked to write recommendations.
- Read all directions carefully. Respond to all items on applications to avoid delays or possible disqualification. In most instances, incomplete applications are not accepted.
- Most college applications are now completed online. If submitting a print application, it is best to type your answers. If not typing, print neatly and use black ink. Keep a copy for your files.
- Online applications can be drafted using a word processing program and then copied and pasted into the online application. Check your spelling and grammar for accuracy.
- Prepare a rough draft of any required essays, then revise and refine the content. Be sure to read the essay prompt(s) carefully. Proofread for spelling, grammar and punctuation errors. Proofread again and have someone else read your essay for feedback.

SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL AID PROVIDERS

The HELPS directory provides listings and basic information for a variety of mostly local scholarships. Although the majority of the listings in this directory are intended for high school seniors, there are a few opportunities listed for nontraditional students and for currently enrolled college students.

As mentioned on page 1, specific information about deadlines is no longer included in this directory. Students will find the most accurate and up-to-date information by following the provided links to the scholarships. Please note that there may be changes in information regarding scholarships, including contact information, terms and qualifications, and the exact amount of financial awards. While HELPS is updated annually, changes do occur following publication. Therefore applicants must check directly with the agency to verify all scholarship details.

There are a few organizations that administer a large number of scholarships and provide searchable databases. These databases allow you to match your interests with available opportunities. Colleges, as well as the state and federal governments, may provide financial aid opportunities.

- THE MIDLAND AREA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION (MACF) is the charitable foundation for Midland County. Their mission is to “provide philanthropic leadership to strengthen our community by fostering collaboration and giving today and in the future.” They administer about 250 scholarships funded predominantly by private donors.

To apply for a scholarship, one must go to the Midland Area Community Foundation website at www.midlandfoundation.org. Students will fill out one application which will then automatically match them to all the scholarships for which they are eligible. Students must also submit transcripts, two letters of recommendation, and an application essay. You can draft your essays before the formal application period so that you will be ready to submit your application when the time comes! Please check the Guidelines in the website listed below for the deadlines and procedures established by the MACF.

Finally, students wishing to be considered for need-based scholarships will have to submit their Expected Family Contribution (EFC) page from their completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Applicants should complete their FAFSA well in advance of the March 1 deadline. There are two forms of the EFC that can be accepted: the page that is displayed immediately after submission of the FAFSA, or the email that is sent to you after FAFSA submission. Be sure your name is on EFC Confirmation Page you provide in your scholarship application. Workshops to assist students/families with completing the FAFSA are offered at all Midland County public schools and at Delta College. Please see the Guidelines website for details.

Contact information for the MACF is repeated throughout this directory as applicable to specific scholarships. For general information, and to begin exploring available opportunities, go to www.midlandfoundation.org.

- OTHER REGIONAL COMMUNITY FOUNDATIONS provide similar services. Their deadlines may vary, so please investigate their websites or call for additional information. Mid-Michigan area residents may be interested in the following:

- COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES administer merit-based and need-based financial aid and scholarship programs. Many colleges also have scholarships endowed by alumni or local residents which are targeted for a specific region or subject area. A quick internet search using the name of the college or university along with the keyword “scholarships” or “financial aid” will bring up information specific to the institution you are considering. Some colleges list scholarships that are available to students in specific subject areas within that academic department’s home page rather than the college’s general financial aid pages, so it may help to thoroughly search the college’s website.

This HELPS directory provides specific listings for opportunities at several of our state universities and regional colleges. These listings will be found within the alphabetical listing under the name of the college or university. Students looking outside of the region will want to explore similar websites at the schools of their choice. Many colleges offer links to external scholarships on their Financial Aid websites. Additionally, many colleges offer useful advice on how to complete applications and how to write effective essays. Be sure to explore these college and university websites thoroughly!

As you search for scholarships online, it is important to be aware of the types of scholarship scams that have proliferated in recent years. You may want to visit the Federal Trade Commission’s Consumer Information website for more information:
<http://www.ftc.gov/scholarshipscams>.

- THE STATE OF MICHIGAN offers need-based and merit-based financial aid opportunities through its Student Financial Services Bureau. It offers diverse programs, for example: Children of Veterans Tuition Grant, Michigan Competitive Scholarship, and the Police and Firefighter’s Survivors Tuition Grant. To apply for any need-based programs, students must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by the stated deadline for consideration. A listing of scholarship and grant opportunities is provided on the MI Student Aid website. You are encouraged to explore further within the MI Student Aid site to find additional general guidance about the college application and funding process.

The organizations and companies that offer scholarships, grants and loans need to know that their generosity is appreciated.

AAUW Midland Branch urges you to extend your thanks in writing.

SECTION II

SCHOLARSHIPS, GRANTS, AND LOANS

The following listings provide only basic information (including relevant links) about each award. The listings are arranged alphabetically by the name of the scholarship, the organization providing the scholarship, or the college/university for which the scholarship is provided. Please check with the scholarship provider directly for information about deadlines, availability of application forms, and eligibility. We wish you the best of luck in your educational endeavors!

AAUW MIDLAND (MI) BRANCH, INC.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN - MIDLAND BRANCH SCHOLARSHIPS

The AAUW Midland Branch provides two annual awards for education to women in the Midland area.

- Graduating Senior Women

“The successful applicant must graduate from a high school under the jurisdiction of the MCESA (Midland County Educational Service Agency) or be a Midland County resident graduating from high school in the year of the award. The applicant must be a female with a cumulative, unweighted 3.0 GPA or better. The award is based on a combination of merit and need. The essay for this scholarship should describe how this award will help the applicant attain her educational goals and her potential contribution to society. It may include such topics as career choice and reasons for that choice, involvement in school and community activities plus any special needs to be considered. Awardee must intend to pursue her education full time in the year following the award and be working toward a baccalaureate degree. Please include the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) page of your completed FAFSA. Incomplete applications will not be considered.”

- Woman in Transition Scholarship

“This scholarship will be awarded to a Midland County woman who has had a delay or interruption in education beyond high school and who wishes to work toward a baccalaureate or higher degree. Applicant could also already have a baccalaureate degree and be returning to college for re-education with a specific career goal in mind. A “delay” is any amount of time beyond one year after completion of secondary education. An “interruption” is equal to two full semesters or more en route to a baccalaureate or higher degree. The scholarship is based on a combination of merit, need, and potential contribution to society. Please include the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) page of your completed FAFSA. The essay for this scholarship should describe career goals, reasons for applying for this scholarship, activities or studies in the past five years and expand on potential contributions to society. A previous recipient may reapply for a second year if a 3.0 cumulative GPA or better is achieved during the first year. This award must be used in the academic year following the announcement of the recipient. Incomplete applications will not be considered.”

ALMA COLLEGE

Alma College provides information on grants and scholarships for current and prospective students on the Financial Aid website. The college offers merit scholarships as well as specific interest area scholarships for fields including students majoring in STEM fields, Upward Bound participants, and children of Alma College alumni. Scholarships are also offered for students in specific Academic Programs. When investigating different departmental websites, search for "student opportunities" or "scholarships." Three types of scholarships are listed below. Please see the Financial Aid website for a full listing of opportunities.

- Merit Scholarships

For incoming freshmen, these are based on high school GPA and ACT/SAT scores. For transfer and International students these are based on GPA.

- Other Alma Scholarships

Some of these scholarships are specifically for incoming freshmen or transfer students. Some may be renewable.

- Performance Scholarships

"Performance Scholarships are available to talented students in art, dance, music (both vocal and instrumental), theatre and Scottish Arts."
